SEPTEMBER 2017

7 THINGS I CAN'T LIVE WITHOUT

1. Cuscini - All modern terraces could use one of these retractable-top pavilions with motorized sun shade walls that also serve for privacy. www.cuscini-design.com

2. Parrot - Designed by Philippe Starke, these DJ style, bluetooth, cordless headphones are an airplane must have. With finger touch options and a variety of color and styles, you can personalize. Mine are cream quilted leather and rose gold. www.global.parrot.com

3. Billecart-Salmon - There is nothing better than cold Billecart-Salmon Rose champagne to celebrate any occasion. Light, fresh and bubbly. www.champagne-billecart.fr/collection/brut-rose

4. One and Only Rwanda - The majestic mountain gorilla could be extinct within 20 years. The One & Only Hotel Rwanda offers a true, luxury gorilla expedition. www.oneandonlyresorts.com/one-and-only-nyungwe-house-rwanda

5. Eleven Madison Park - This famous NYC restaurant has been named "Best restaurant in the world 2017". Swiss chef, Daniel Humm serves up exquisite and beautiful dishes that are unforgettable. If you can't get to Manhattan, you can always buy one of his books. www.elevenmadisonpark.com

6. Dedon - The best place to nap or read outside? This hanging daybed by Dedon is the spot. 8 feet in diameter, it can hold 2 people and easily be unhooked and brought it during bad weather. www.dedon.de

7. Rimowa Luggage - I've tried many brands of luggage and without a doubt, the Rimowa Salsa luggage is the lightest, most practical carry-on on the market. Made of durable, lightweight, polycarbonate, it is crush-proof and looks great. www.rimowa.com
