SUMMER 2019

7 THINGS I CAN'T LIVE WITHOUT

1. Van Cleef & Arpels – What better way to say hello summer, than with a sparkling flower diamond and sapphire necklace from Van Cleef & Arpels Folie des Pres collection.

2. Saint Laurent- If you missed the last full moon you can celebrate it all month with Stardust heels by Saint Laurent. Black leather encrusted stars and a moon make these the perfect, fun, summer night out shoes.

3. Alexander Calder – I'm a huge fan of Calder's mathematical and aesthetic mind. His mobiles and sculptures are a perfect combination of left and right brain thinking. One of his pieces entitled "black lace" just came on the market!

4. Fendi Private Suites – Seven ultra-lux, suites that are all decorated with modern Fendi Casa furnishings and reserved for exclusive clientele. Situated in the best location, directly above the Fendi store, it's my new favorite home-away-from-home in Rome.

5. Sonambient – In 1975, architect Harry Bertoia designed an outdoor piece which made a soft metal sound making the piece come to life. His "sonambient" or sound sculptures are simple, audible beauty.

6. Harumi Klosswska de Roja – Her name may not be household, but her work is unforgettable. Harumi designs unique pieces from jewelry to furniture all with nature in mind. I'm currently obsessed with her new bronze and gold leaf beach "Madfet"

7. Campana Studio – The Brazilian brother duo, Humberto & Fernando Campana, continue to produce one-of-a-kind, distinctive, conversational, functional art furniture for special clients like Louis Vuitton. Their pieces have a story to tell and are seriously cute.
