SUMMER 2018

7 THINGS I CAN'T LIVE WITHOUT

1. Barefoot Luxury - I might be a tiny bit biased .. but it's the best design coffee table book of the year! If you don't have a copy already, get busy and order yours!

2. The Leto Bar Stool - My new favorite martini chair designed by Kimberly Denman. The combination of brass detailing and tapered legs give it a very updated classic style. Makes me feel like wearing Mathew Williamson.

3. Kitami Wall Lamp - Looking for a wall sconce that feels like art? This series of parallel and perpendicular metal rods with led lights mounted at the end are designed by VeniceM. Outstanding.

4. Slide Sandals - Who can resist pink, mink fur sandals? Certainly not me. Best airplane shoes ever!

5. Tiger's Eye Faucet - Do you ever feel like all faucets start to look the same after a while? No issue about design duplicity with Sherle Wagner's semi precious Tiger's eye stone faucets. This faucet has traditional, power masculine bathroom all over it.

6. Home Pod - I'm having so much fun with my new Apple home pod. Siri has a musical sense of humor and I love checking traffic and weather with her as I walk out the door. Plus it's the absolute laziest way to get music going as you vegetate on the sofa. Fun!

7. Carpenter's Bench - Another fabulous creation from Alison Berger has become my new favorite piece of furniture this season. The carpenter's bench is a custom, 2" thick top piece of glass, mounted on a stylized bronze base. It's farm. It's industrial. It's modern. It's just plain perfection.
