Summer Inspiration

Sandra Espinet

As a child my family traveled to Florida each year, and our adventures to the state's many white sand beaches have remained a source of inspiration and relaxation. The soft sheer fabrics, the shells, the light colors of the sand and ocean and the casual feel of summer are ever present in my design. I always notice windows and natural light and incorporate as much fun into a home as possible — all things I am sure I picked up from the many holidays in Florida. — SE
